

USA Ultimate National Outreach Director

General Role

The national outreach director (NOD) is tasked with introducing the sport of ultimate to new populations in the US, recruiting, expanding, managing and motivating the volunteer base of state-level USA Ultimate volunteers, developing guidance on outreach best practice for clinics and leagues, and providing resources and assistance on outreach programs to outreach coordinators (OC). The NOD reports to the coordinator of youth and education programs, currently Sarah Powers.

This position, more than any other, relies heavily on the NOD to reach out to areas and organizations without current youth ultimate play and help identify volunteers who can lead the development of community appropriate playing opportunities, while also developing ways to build ultimate in areas with some ultimate playing opportunities. The NOD should be knowledgeable of the existing youth ultimate structure across the country, or be willing to investigate details when appropriate.

Responsibilities

The NOD's primary responsibility is to oversee and support outreach activities. This includes:

- Manage the outreach advisors and ensure they complete the following:
 - Quarterly internal newsletter
 - Quarterly check-in with outreach coordinators
 - Run a USA Ultimate outreach event
 - Help NOD target volunteer recruitment
- Work with outreach advisors and outreach coordinators to develop new outreach opportunities.
- Encourage the development of both school based leagues, recreational and youth club leagues
- Communicate regularly with the USA Ultimate coordinator of youth and education programs:
 - Ongoing programs – their successes and challenges
 - Development of new outreach opportunities
 - Areas to expand current programming to have a broader reach
 - Management of volunteers – recruitment, retention and productivity
- Connect youth players and ultimate organizations to USA Ultimate
- Work with states without USA Ultimate youth structure to promote play, find and support volunteers
- Manage and develop outreach projects as needed
- Reside on the Outreach Working Group and attend one meeting a year where we will assess the previous year and plan for the upcoming year in terms of programming and budget.
 - This will occur Friday, August 2 and Saturday, August 3 of US Open.

Appointment

In coordination with the manager of youth and education programs, the coordinator of youth and education programs appoints the NOD. The term is for a period of two years, subject to review and evaluation, and the coordinator of youth and education may terminate or review the appointment with approval of the manager of youth and education programs.
