On behalf of the USA Ultimate, the Cincinnati Ultimate Players Association, Youth Ultimate Cincinnati and the Warren County Convention and Visitors Bureau, I take great pleasure in welcoming you to the 2014 USA Ultimate Division I College Championships. We are very excited about hosting another USA Ultimate Championship event in southwest Ohio – Warren County.

Warren County is centrally located between Cincinnati and Dayton which makes it a perfect destination to experience nearby regional attractions such as the Cincinnati Zoo & Botanical Garden, the National Museum of the U.S. Air Force, The Kings Island Amusement Park, Cincinnati Reds and many fine athletic facilities, performing arts centers and cultural museums. There’s a reason we’re called Ohio’s Largest Playground, where everyone wins.

This year’s event includes 20 men’s and 20 women’s teams from around the United States and Canada in a showcase of college ultimate at its best. Many of the teams are returning from last year, including last year’s champions in each division. Also, many new teams will be playing in their first-ever USA Ultimate College Championships. Best of luck to all of the teams, and thanks to all of the players and coaches who continue to grow and support ultimate.

Events like the College Championships only happen with lots of volunteers. Volunteers are the backbone of every successful USA Ultimate championship event. These fabulous helpers will be keeping score, setting up the fields, keeping you hydrated and running many errands around the fields. We will strive to make this a premier event. Please acknowledge their hard work and dedication in supporting the sport of ultimate.

Have a great weekend,
Dale Wilker, Tournament Director, and the CUPA Staff

THUNDERBIRDS

City/State: Vancouver, BC
Website: ubcultimate.wordpress.com
Captains: Devra Walding, Jennifer Kwok
Coaches: Tasia Balding

The UBC Ultimate program was founded in 1997. Our success was limited until 2006, when two-time Callahan nominee Stephanie Chow became involved in the program. Chow led our team to Nationals three seasons in a row, culminating in 2008 as our most successful season, in which we won College Nationals, Centex with 12 players, and the Canadian University Ultimate Championships with seven players including only two veterans. After Chow passed on the coaching torch, the TBirds have been lucky to have great coaches Kira Frew, Jon Hayduk, Ashley Welsh, Tasia Balding and Jenn Kwok to lead a group of phenomenal ladies. Since 2011, we have qualified for Nationals every season, always placing better than the year before. We return to the 2014 College Championships in Mason, OH, looking to win it all.

Initially, the team changed their name every tournament from ""No Food in the Library"" to ""Flying Nuns,"" and when they did poorly, ""Flying Nones."" In 1987, the first year of the college women's division, the ultimate scene was so strong for women on the west coast that the UCSB Women’s Ultimate team couldn’t make it out of the region.

In 1988, the UCSB Women’s Ultimate team began using the name the Burning Skirts. That year, under the leadership of Liz Stoltz, Andrea Kelly, Tricia (Meyer) Guilfoyle, Pattie Montgomery and Cathy Lamourex, the Skirts won the 1988 National Championship. This championship began the golden era in Santa Barbara, with the Skirts capturing National Championships in 1990 and 1991.

The UCSB Women’s Ultimate team was founded in 1985 when a few women who played ultimate moved to Santa Barbara and decided to start a college team. One was Kelly Green, and another was Liz Stolz. Back then, college teams were allowed to have ringers, so Kelly, Lizzy Marino and Joanie (Shumacher) Merrill played with the team, teaching them the fundamentals of the game.

"What’s Syzygy you might like to know?

Three heavenly bodies all in a row.

We’ve got the bodies, we’ve got the flow, so come on Syzygy, let’s go!

Let’s line those bodies up, one-two-three!

We’ve got huckin’ O, we’ve got divin’ D!

We’re going to launch that disc astronomically, so everyone knows we’re Syzygy!"
The women’s ultimate team at UCF formed in Fall 2009 when a few girls decided it was time to create a name for UCF in the women’s Ultimate community. The first year consisted of 10 girls who traveled the state trying to learn more. With the coaching of Nicole, a former Florida player, that first team traveled to its first tournament and discovered ultimate is a grueling sport. By the third tournament, they were ready to call it quits. However, they had to give it one more shot, so they combined with USF, won their first games at Georgia Southern and realized they had made some lifelong friends and kind of enjoyed playing the game. Without the perseverance of Nicole and the girls that first year, we wouldn’t have been able to create a team that exists today.

In the Sirens’ first “official year,” we had an amazing coach, Joseph Tilley, volunteer and a team of 16 girls commit. Tilley turned our team around and made us all strong ultimate athletes. We ended up fourth in our section, ninth in our region and 61st in the nation.

Since then, we have improved tremendously each year. We made it to Nationals for the first time last year, in only our fourth official year as a team. Now, we come into the tournament ranked third in the nation! We hope to earn that number one spot this year, and with Tilley at the helm, it’s certainly attainable.

Kali's most recent Nationals appearance was in 2010, when the team tied for third. Since then, the team has focused on building its core of players and developing a strong program. In 2012, Jack McShane became head coach and Kali finished fifth at Regionals. During the spring of 2013, our program expanded to include a B team (Devi). This season, we picked up Lauren Boyle as head coach for Devi, and the team attended both Trouble in Vegas and Centex. This team is indicative of the growing depth and strength of CU Women's Ultimate.

Kali entered Regionals as the #1 seed in 2013, but we fell to Texas in the finals and missed out on Nationals. In 2014, we returned an experienced core of upperclassmen, in addition to many strong rookie additions. We spent the season fine-tuning our offense and defense and developing team chemistry. We played in some of the most competitive tournaments of our team’s recent history. While we were not always as successful as we would have hoped at these tournaments, playing against such a high level of competition allowed us to learn and develop from our struggles. This season, the past few years of hard work and dedication finally paid off, and Kali took the third bid to Nationals in the back-door game at Regionals. We look forward to the continued development of our program at Nationals and in the years to come.
LYSISTRATA’S TOOLS

City/State: Colorado Springs, CO
Captains: Chrissy Maruyama, Lisi Lohre, Maggie Bailey
Coach: Emily Woolridge

Lysistrata’s Tools (AKA Strata) was established in the early 1990s by Justine Crowley and Rachel Hess. Strata made it to Nationals for the first time in 2011 under the leadership of Sophia Herscu, Molly Sinnott and Hannah Sohl. There are three members of that squad on the current team: Lisi Lohre, Jessi Garhart and Sarah Freeman. Although the team existed far earlier, it was the addition of Sophia Herscu’s talent and passion at Colorado College that built the strong foundation of the current thriving program. Additionally, the gain of coach Emily Woolridge in 2009 solidified Strata as a competitive D-I team. In 2012, Strata lost on universe point to Washington University, finishing third in the region. Last year, Strata finished fifth in the region. This year, with an influx of experienced freshmen and a dedicated squad, Strata is psyched to be in Cincinnati and hopes to make a strong showing.

We’re Pretty, We’re Quick...

Betty Ultimate has a long and proud history. Women have been playing ultimate at the University of Kansas since the early 1980s. In 1986, the Bettys were born. In 1987, the UPA held the first ever women's College National Championship. The Bettys not only qualified for the event, but they were the inaugural champions. The Bettys reached Nationals a number of times throughout the 1990s but haven’t been back to the big dance since the late 90s. In the recent past, the goals at the beginning of the season have been to reach Nationals. This year, we stepped back and played for three goals: 1) love of the sport; 2) love of the Bettys; 3) love for yourself. The Bettys were challenged by their captains and coaches to commit to each other at practices, workouts and tournaments. They stepped up to the plate and won conference championships for the first time since 2005 and regionals for the first time since 1999.

This year the Valkyries wear #8 on their jerseys in loving memory of 2009 Alumna, Stephanie Barker.
With seven National Championships and multiple other finals and semifinals appearances, Stanford Superfly is one of the most storied programs in college ultimate. We owe our success to our coaches Robin Davis, Jamie Nuwer and Jenny Wang, who bring years of strategy and coaching expertise to our program.

We’re bringing a small but strong squad to Nationals this year; we are a close-knit group of women who are dedicated, supportive and hardworking. After battling through a string of injuries and coming back even stronger, Superfly 2014 is here to prove that the strength of the wolf is the pack.

Victoria finally became a fully functioning team that played in fall and spring five years ago. We typically were only fielding 7-10 players for each tournament until two years ago when the culture and passion spread throughout the team like wildfire. Now we have a B team and an A team with plenty of members. We all live together, near and with the men’s team, in different houses in the same neighbourhood. Our team is all about culture.

Virginia Women's Ultimate has been a growing program since the early '80s, recently developing into a nationally competitive A team as well as a talented B team. With revitalized determination and dedicated leadership, Hydra won its first Atlantic Coast Regional Championship in 10 years back in 2012. Last year’s coaches David Allison and Manu Argilli, along with captains Mary Kelly and Katrien Hinderdael, helped lead Hydra to its second AC Regional Championship and bid to Nationals. This year’s captains - Melanie Chastka, Alika Johnston and Sarah Hansen - have continued the legacy of strong leadership, guiding their young team to its third AC Regional Championship victory in a row. Hydra is excited to compete at Nationals in Cincinnati, OH, and is proud to represent the AC Region yet again. Wahooa!

CHAOs

City/State: Bellingham, WA
Captains: Natalie Powell, Abbie Abramovich, Rosemary Widenor
Coach: Alyssa Weathertford, Pauline Ruegg, Bren Byerley

Chaos was not built in a day; it took years to make this much havoc. The 2013-2014 season marks the 14th year of Chaos. This team was started in 1999 by Tanya Cram. Alyssa Weathertford, former player and current coach, has been involved with Chaos for nine years and is a huge contributor to the success of this team. Chaos has come a long way since their inaugural season in which they did not win a single game; however, their core values of friendship, love and just having a good time will always lie in the heart of Chaos. The program developed over the years and began to attract attention in 2008, starting to be seen as a team with a lot of potential. In 2013, Chaos won their first USA Ultimate sanctioned tournament, Stanford Open, and won the tournament for a second time in 2014 before continuing on to place second at the Stanford Invite. After finishing fifth in the Northwest Regional tournament, Chaos earned their first bid to College Nationals.

“Our real discoveries come from chaos, from going to the place that looks wrong and stupid and foolish.” - Chuck Palahniuk

SWEETS

City/State: Walla Walla, WA
Captains: Corinne Pingul, Julia Bladin, Ari Lozano
Coach: Benjamin McGinn

Five years ago, the Walla Walla Lady Sweets were a team who could, on a good day, only muster five-on-five at practice. In 2012, we placed fourth at D-I regionals, playing in the game to go to Nationals against UBC. At last year's regionals, we came with a new focus and intensity and pushed our way to break seed and nab the last bid to Nationals. We are not only a group of individually committed players, but a passionate team determined to continue playing fiery and scrappy ultimate. Let's go Sweets!

AIR SQUIDS

City/State: San Diego, CA
Captains: Trevor Purdy, Nicholas Smith
Coaches: Kevin Stuart, Andrew Curtis, Matthew Parisi

After surviving the grueling San Diego summer and getting in touch with their ancestry by eating a lot of calamari, the Squids knew they had to start the year with one thing on their minds: winning. The Squids came out firing this year with a huge win at the Sean Ryan tournament in Santa Cruz. Here, they realized that there was another thing to keep on their minds: cream. They continued to churn that cream with their first sanctioned tournament win in recent history at Santa Barbara. The cream cooled a bit at Stanford Invite, where they suffered some tough losses. The Squids decided that the best move was to make a trip to the inaugural mustache bash which proved to be a catalyst to a strong finish to the season. With the cream churning and mustaches trimmed, the Squids took the conference and earned the number one seed in the region. The cream and the mustaches only got warmer and fuller in preparation for regionals. To make it interesting, their captain decided to drop the pull on universe in the semis but go on to win anyway, and the Squids brushed their 'staches in preparation for the finals. This helped them win the region, earning the only Southwest bid to Nationals. The Squids are going places and inking faces!

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

DOGS OF WAR

City/State: Orlando, FL
Website: centralfloridaultimate.com
Coaches: Andrew Roca, Daniel Jakob, Zach Hollis

The Men’s Ultimate Frisbee Club was accepted as a registered student organization (RSO) at the University of Central Florida in 2004 and was accepted into UCF’s Sport Club Council shortly thereafter. However, the history within ultimate dates back to 1985, based on UPA records. Since 2004, the Dogs have evolved from developmental party team to quiet contender in the powerhouse AC Region. Since 2011 and the redrawing of the Southeast Region, the Dogs have steadily increased their recruiting, visibility and competitiveness with player-turned-coach, Andrew Roca. UCF made its first Nationals appearance in 2012 with a 5th place finish and returned the next year as the National Runner-Up in 2013. 2014 was not the perfect season, but during the Series, the plan remains the same; showcasing their best play come May, Vamanos!

MAMBIRD

City/State: Boulder, CO
Website: mamabird.com
Captains: Pawel Janas, Phil Sun, Todd Wolma
Coaches: Jim Schoettler, Brent Zionic

In 1993, Mamabird first took the fields. By 1998, she made her first Nationals appearance. There has been no looking back, across three different regions, ever since. But only one national title is in her talons, despite several chances. This season has seen a lot of success from a team that has grown together over the years, a team that has learned the value of trust, confidence and being loose. Play hard, play smart, have fun. And it would be nice if we play a little defense. Now, where is that football?

PAIN TRAIN

City/State:  Hanover, NH
Website:  dartmouth.edu/~ultimate/
Captains:  Dan Harris, Spencer Diamond, David Clemens-Sewall
Coach:  Brook Martin

The Dartmouth Pain Train began from humble roots back when there were no backs to the end zone*. Our name originated not from our forays into the world of heavy metal Train cover bands but instead from the inimitable Terry Tate – office linebacker of 2003 Super Bowl Reebok commercial fame. Whether or not Reebok responds to our sponsorship requests, the Pain Train and Terry Tate share a number of qualities in common: a strong sense of discipline, a 6'4" frame, unbridled aggression, and a big heart. Coached by Dr. Brook Martin, PhD – who has more national and world championship rings than fingers* – we brave the cold winters and cold falls and kind of nice springs of New England to hone our game. Our strengths are our ability to score goals and throw them as well. We’re pumped to be here. Woo woo.

*Until a natural obstruction such as railroad tracks or a bush.
The offer is still on the table!
Not really.
*If those were a thing in ultimate.

EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

FIGHTING HELLFISH

City/State:  Ypsilanti, MI
Website:  twitter.com/emuhellfish
Captains:  Austin Engel, Mark Cooks

2014 will mark the first appearance at the College Championships for Eastern Michigan. Our program was established in the 1990s and has recently found success competing in the Great Lakes Region. In the past decade, we have grown from a team competing at the lowest tiers of college ultimate to consistently competing for a bid to the College Championships.

The 2014 rendition of the Hellfish consists of 15 players and no coach, but through hard work and personal accountability, we managed to earn a spot competing at the College Championships.

Florida exploded onto the national scene in 2006, riding a short rotation to the program’s first Championship in its first appearance at Nationals. Repeating again as champions in 2010, the team kept its stars on the field while the competition waited, disappointed, for them fade. Florida returns to the College Championships in the same fashion, placing a heavy workload on captains Jason Silverman, James Dahl and Bobby Ley, who look to add their names among the greats of the program’s history.

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

DUF

City/State: Tallahassee, FL
Website: fsultimate.com
Captains: Christopher LaRocque, Andrew Roney, Ryan MacFadyen
Coaches: Peter Van De Burgt, Matthew Fontaine Childs

DUF was originally founded in 1975 as a disc games club at FSU. In the late 80s and early 90s, the team began competing at ultimate tournaments. Since reaching Nationals in 1996, DUF has stayed in relative obscurity. Throughout the 2000s, the squad was always competitive but never able to make a break through. After bringing in Coach Peter van de Burgt, the team started making huge strides towards becoming a national-caliber squad and finished fourth at Southeast Regionals in 2012, the highest finish for DUF in 10 years. 2013 was the first year DUF had made Nationals in 17 years. This year, DUF is looking forward to building on last year’s results and going for its first title.

Harvard University

City/State: Cambridge, MA
Website: hcs.harvard.edu/~disc/
Captains: William Dean, Wynn Tucker
Coaches: Michael MacKenzie, Piers MacNaughton

Founded in 1976, Harvard Men’s Frisbee has been a consistent presence in New England since the early 90s. HMF donned the name Red Line in 2000 and has since evolved into a perennial regional contender. Prior to the 2011-2012 season, Harvard picked up former Red Line captain Mike MacKenzie as its new coach. A cool head on the sidelines, he implemented a deep roster to great effect, leading Red Line to consecutive regional championships the past two seasons. Harvard returns to Nationals for its seventh appearance in 10 years.

This year’s team brings together a potent mix of players from every year of the program. Junior Callahan Nominee Jeremy “Thelonious” Nixon leads a dominant O-Line alongside ancient wise-man David “Dr. Doctor” Reshef and central handler Mark “Funky Bunches” Vandenberg. Captain Wynn Tucker leads a star-studded D-Line cast including senior Danny “Big Bird” Broudy and freshman standout John “Chicken Tips” Stubbs. The team looks forward to testing its surgical offense and relentless defense against college ultimate’s best at the Championships.

Like many Red Line teams before us, we are on a Vision Quest, a journey to climb that wall, date that drifter, and grab our share of the glory. All we ever settled for was that we were born to live and then to die; we’ve gotta do it alone, each in his own way. And I guess that’s why we gotta love those people who deserve it like there’s no tomorrow. ‘Cause when you get down to it there isn’t.

Magnum has been to Nationals 12 times in the 16-year history of the program, though the team has never finished better than fifth at Nationals. Magnum has also taken first in the Great Lakes Region seven times. Will Neff is the only MagnUM player to win the Callahan, which he did in 2009.

In 2007, 2012 and 2013. Beyond these superficial accolades exists a collection just commonplace, it is inevitable.

DARKSIDE

City/State: Chapel Hill, NC
Website: uncdarkside.com
Captains: Justin Moore, Jonathan Nethercutt, Christian Johnson
Coaches: Mike DeNardis, Matthew Scallet, Jonathan Brodhag

Darkside began in the fall of 1993, when a couple of freshmen at UNC got together with the idea of forming an ultimate team. By 1995, Darkside had qualified for its first regional tournament. In 1999, Darkside earned its first ever Nationals berth. In 2000, the team won Sectionals and Regionals on the way to a second Nationals bid.

In 2001, Darkside again qualified for Nationals and established itself as a perennial regional power. Darkside has now gone to Nationals in 2005, 2007, 2012 and 2013. Beyond these superficial accolades exists a collection of upstanding young gentlemen. Darkside is best described as a group of gentlemen whose dashing good looks and unflappable southern charm are outweighed only by their razor-sharp disc skills, breathtaking athleticism and blinding, white-hot competitive fire. More important still is their propensity for camaraderie. Like soldiers headed to war, they must rely on each other and trust each other. Being placed in competitive situations such as these creates an environment where a tight-knit sense of brotherhood is not just commonplace, it is inevitable.

SPECTATOR INFO
A&M Ultimate officially started in 1999 when a few old Ags convinced a lot of freshmen to join the team. They went to a few tourneys the first couple years, but they actually played more disc golf than ultimate, so they never had a huge amount of success. Then in 2001, A&M decided to play less disc golf, and therefore, they made Nationals for the first time and finished 12th. Pretty much every year since then, A&M’s season has ended a game or two short of going back, so this year Ags everywhere can celebrate again!

A celebration of character, community and competition.

3 DIVISIONS, 3 CHAMPIONS, 24 OF THE WORLD’S BEST TEAMS

★ A CELEBRATION OF CHARACTER, COMMUNITY AND COMPETITION ★
HEALTH & SAFETY

Medical staff, including athletic trainers, will be on site at Tournament Central to treat injuries, handle emergencies and provide some preventative care. The event will provide standard athletic tape, pre-wrap, ice and some bandages. Other supplies, including special tape/bandages and anti-inflammatory drugs, must be provided by teams or may be charged by the training staff. If there is an injury on a field that needs medical attention, inform a field marshal, and he or she will radio to the trainers. If you have medical issues that require attention in the morning before play, please show up early to avoid long lines. The trainers will be at the fields by 7:30 a.m. each day. Directions to the local hospital can be found in the “Directions” section of this program.

CONCUSSIONS

EDUCATION

• USA Ultimate recommends the CDC “Heads Up Safety” program, a free one-hour online training: cdc.gov/concussion/headsup/youth.html.

• USA Ultimate's participant waiver includes important information from the CDC regarding concussion safety: usaultimate.org/membership/usa_ultimate_membership_forms.aspx

COACHING REQUIREMENTS

• Coaches at USA Ultimate events are required to have completed a concussion awareness and safety recognition program (like the CDC program above or other local or state-recommended course). Coaches should not submit records of course completion to USA Ultimate, but should maintain records on-site while coaching.

REMOVAL & RETURN TO PLAY

• All guidelines identified by the CDC must be strictly followed in the event of a suspected concussion:
  1. Remove athlete from play.
  2. Ensure athlete is evaluated by a health care professional trained in concussion diagnosis and management.
     - Do not try to judge the seriousness of the injury yourself.
  3. If a minor, inform athlete’s parents or guardians about the known or possible concussion and give them the fact sheet on concussion.
  4. Allow athlete to return to play only with permission from an appropriate health care professional.

HEAT, NUTRITION AND HYDRATION

• Heat-related illness occurs when body cooling by evaporation is limited. Sweating depletes the body’s salt and moisture, which leads to dehydration. If a player recognizes any signs or symptoms of heat-related illness, he or she should treat the problem immediately.

• Signs and symptoms of heat illness can include changes in level of consciousness, abdominal cramps, nausea/vomiting, fatigue/tingling, chills, inability to spit, dry mucous membranes, decreased output and change in color of urine.

• Prevention and Treatment of Heat Illness:
  - Avoid alcohol, caffeine and carbonated beverages.
  - Medications such as antihistamines, decongestants, certain asthma medications and diuretics can increase risk for heat illness. Avoid them if possible.
- Avoid certain nutritional supplements (such as caffeine and ephedrine) that can dehydrate the body and/or increase metabolism and heat production.
- Know your body – be honest! Are you fit enough to perform under current conditions?
- Eat and drink (water AND sports drinks) optimally before, during and after play. Potassium is important (good sources include sports drinks, yogurt, grapefruit juice, bananas and oranges). Sodium is also important (good sources include sports drinks, vegetable juices, pretzels, nuts, cheese and crackers). After play, carbohydrates are important: foods such as potatoes, honey, cereal, white bread, corn chips, sports drinks, jelly beans, rice cakes, bagels, crackers and gummy candies).
- Don’t drink too much. Over-hydrating can be dangerous if it leads to a fluid and electrolyte imbalance.
- Be sensitive to prior illness. If you’ve been sick, your body may be more susceptible to dehydration.
- Rest and cool down after play. Find shade, wet the skin, get in front of a fan or breeze.

SIDELINE SAFETY

- Spectators and equipment must stay at least 3 yards away from the sidelines. Where there are buffer lines, respect them. Chairs, coolers, strollers, you, etc., must be at least three yards from the sidelines.
- If a player believes that an object on the sideline is not safe, he or she should inform Event Staff and refrain from playing until he or she is satisfied that safe conditions have been established.
- USA Ultimate and Event Staff reserve the right to move or remove objects or spectators from on or near the playing field if those conditions are, in the opinion of USA Ultimate or Event Staff, unsafe for players, staff or spectators.

LIGHTNING GUIDELINES

- Event Staff will communicate with players and spectators via PA system and through field marshals equipped with radios if there is a lightning danger. Play then will be stopped, and everyone should seek shelter.
- Safe shelter for players and spectators at the field site includes any fully enclosed building or vehicle with a hard top and closed windows.
- Event Staff will use the “flash-to-bang” method to determine when to send people to shelter. By the time the flash-to-bang count has reached 30 seconds, all individuals should be in a safe shelter location.
- If you can’t get to a safe shelter, try to avoid being the tallest object in an open field or on open water. Avoid other tall objects, metal objects and water. Assume a crouched position with only the balls of your feet touching the ground, your arms wrapped around your knees, and your head lowered. Minimize contact with the ground. Do not lie flat.
- Avoid using telephone land lines. Cell phones are safe, provided the person has followed other safety guidelines.
- Event Staff will indicate to players when play is going to resume. Team captains should meet at Tournament Central to receive instructions for resuming play and any schedule modifications.
MAKING ULTIMATE STRONGER

Our mission is to support ultimate, and good coaches are an integral part of the development of the sport.

So take a moment to appreciate the coaches. Heck, take a plenty of moments. We really can’t thank them enough for the work they do!

SPIRIT OF THE GAME

10 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SPIRIT OF THE GAME™

1. THE GOLDEN RULE: TREAT OTHERS AS YOU WOULD WANT TO BE TREATED.

Spirited games result from mutual respect among opponents. Assume the best of your opponent. Give him or her the benefit of a doubt. You would want the same for yourself. But if you are thick-skinned, do not assume that your opponent is. Maybe you should think of this rule as, “treat others as you would have them treat your mother.”

2. CONTROL: SOTG TAKES REAL EFFORT.

SOTG is not just some abstract principle that everyone adopts and then games run smoothly without effort. Close calls are made in tight games. Hard fouls are committed. SOTG is about how you handle yourself under pressure: how you contain your emotionality, tame your temper, and modulate your voice. If you initiate or contribute to the unraveling of spirit, the concept falls apart quickly. If you act to mend things (or at least not exacerbate the situation) by following (1) above, the game heals itself.

3. HECKLING AND TAUNTING ARE DIFFERENT.

Ultimate has a long tradition of good-natured heckling. Heckles are friendly barbs, typically from non-playing spectators. Heckling can be fun, but taunting is unspirited and wrong. Harassing remarks after an opponent’s foul call or close play are NOT heckling: they are abusive taunts which create unpleasant playing conditions and often escalate to acrimonious disputes.

4. SOTG IS COMPATIBLE WITH CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY.

It is a fallacy to argue that the stakes are so important that some aspect of SOTG can be cast aside. Time and again, great teams and star players have shown that you can bring all your competitive and athletic zeal to a game without sacrificing fair play or respect for your opponent.

5. DON’T “GIVE AS YOU GOT.”

There is no “eye for an eye.” If you are wronged, you have no right to wrong someone in return. In the extreme case where you were severely mistreated, you may bring the issue up with a captain, tournament director, or even lodge a complaint with the governing body. If you retaliate in kind, however, a complaint may be filed against you. We recall point (1): treat others as you would have them treat you, not as they have treated you. In the end, you are responsible for you.
6. BREATHE.

After a hard foul, close call, or disputed play, take a step back, pause, and take a deep breath. In the heat of competition, emotions run high. By giving yourself just a bit of time and space, you will gain enough perspective to compose yourself and concentrate on the facts involved in the dispute (was she in or out; did you hit his hand or the disc; did that pick affect the play). Your restraint will induce a more restrained response from your opponent. Conflagration averted, you may resume business as usual.

7. WHEN YOU DO THE RIGHT THING, PEOPLE NOTICE.

When you turn the other cheek, you know you’ve done the right thing. You may not hear praise, there may be no standing ovation, but people do notice. Eventually, their respect for you and their appreciation of the game will grow.

8. BE GENEROUS WITH PRAISE.

Compliment an opponent on her good catch. Remark to a teammate that you admire their honesty in calling themselves out of bounds. Look players in the eye and congratulate them when you shake their hands after a game. These small acts boost spirit greatly, a large payoff for little time and effort.

9. IMPRESSIONS LINGER.

Not only does the realization that your actions will be remembered for a long time serve to curb poor behavior, it can also inspire better conduct. Many old-timers enjoy the experience of meeting an elite player who remembers their first rendezvous on the field and recalls the event in detail. A good first encounter with an impressionable young player can have considerable long term positive impact.

10. HAVE FUN.

All other things being equal, games are far more fun without the antipathy. Go hard. Play fair. Have fun.

SPIRIT AWARDS

Ultimate has traditionally relied upon the spirit of sportsmanship, which places the responsibility for fair play on the player. Highly competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of mutual respect among competitors, adherence to the agreed upon rules of the game, or the basic joy of play. – 11th Edition USA Ultimate Rules of Ultimate.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS: Teams will each be asked to nominate a player from their own team who they feel displays the highest level of Spirit. The definition of Spirit is up to each team but should include elements of sportsmanship, leadership, perseverance, fire, etc. Choose the person whose attitude you wish other people on your team would emulate and who other players off your team admire. Individual Spirit winners will receive a medal and prize disc (courtesy of DISCRAFT). Thanks to Discraft for their support of ultimate and Spirit of the Game!

TEAM AWARDS: Following every game, each team will be asked to rate its opponent using the World Flying Disc Federation’s spirit scoring system.

WFDF SPIRIT SCORING (from www.wfdf.org)

The objectives of the Spirit of the Game (SOTG) scoring sheet are:

1) Educate players on what Spirit of the Game is
2) Help teams to improve specific parts of their Spirit
3) Celebrate SOTG by awarding a prize to the team that gets the highest score

To achieve this, every team needs to score in a similar fashion. We recognize that SOTG is hard to capture exactly, and the specifics and the examples may vary by country, competition level, etc., but if players adhere to the guidelines below, the objectives of the scoring system will be achieved.

HOW TO FILL IN THE SCORES

- Filling in the scores is a team effort. This helps in educating your players too. While this might take several minutes the first few times, it will take only a minute after you get used to it.

- It is expected that teams display normal, good spirit. The system was designed in accordance with this expectation. Therefore the baseline in each category is “Good” which equals 2 Points. For each game, determine if the other team was better than, worse than, or the same as just a regular game and score accordingly.

- Focus on each question and answer that question only. Do not start with an overall score in mind and work backwards to get that score.

- There might be many times that nothing out of the ordinary occurred at a game. As such, each category should get 2 points. A final score of 10 points is considered Good Spirit.

- Give a real score that reflects the items detailed on the sheet; do not score a team because you felt the team was ‘nice’ or because they made a funny game in the circle.

- Do your part of the job and bring back the sheet when requested by the TD.

LOGISTICS:

- Teams will receive a sample scoring sheet and explanation at the captain’s meeting.

- Scorekeepers will hand out the 4-team scoring sheet during your first rounds of play each day.

- After your last round of play, return the scoring sheet to the score keeper of your last game.
USA Ultimate has recommended post-game “spirit circles” to teams at the Youth Club Championships since 2010. It’s an idea borrowed from international competitions throughout the ultimate world. For years, American teams have traveled to world championships where they have not only done exceptionally well in each competition, but showed the international community the importance we place on respect for the game and their opponents. But American players have also learned a lot from competing against teams from other countries, and invariably one of the most positive parts of the international experience has been the tradition of the post-game spirit circle. While there are a number of ways to do this, here are some quick tips to get your team started:

- Following each game, rather than lining up to slap hands, the two teams gather into a circle, alternating players on each team, facing inward, with arms around the shoulders of the person next to you.

- One or two people (often team captains) on each team will talk briefly about the game. Usually the losing team goes first, then the winning team.

- Things to talk about can include how the game went, how your own team played, what the other team did well, who on the other team played well, and anything else that might be worth communicating...even if it's something you think could be done better (and don't forget to look in the mirror on this).

- After each team has had a chance to talk, the winning team takes a step into the circle and walks around counter-clockwise to slap hands with the players on the other team.

That’s it! It’s pretty simple and definitely an experience that brings teams together and puts the game and the experience in perspective. It’s all about respect for each other and the experience of bringing out the best in each other through competition. It’s also about building relationships and seeing opponents for what they really are: part of the same community that loves ultimate. Please note that this is not meant to replace other post-game traditions you may have (e.g., cheers, games, photos, gifts or trading gear). Good luck, and please let USA Ultimate staff and other event organizers how it goes!

USA ULTIMATE SPIRIT OF COACHING

BACKGROUND: The role of the coach at all levels of ultimate is unique in a sport that places on-field player authority above non-player influence. As a non-player, the coach’s authority must not extend to the on-field officiating process. Coaches may be faced with situations where they are able to correct the self-officiating process and ensure the correct outcome to a given play. In this situation, coaches must not interfere in the officiating process, in order to ensure that players learn and take responsibility for officiating. Coach interference in the decision-making process, even in the most egregious violations, will indicate to players that the coach – and not the players – has the ultimate responsibility for ensuring the inherent fairness of the game. Teaching players the rules and how to implement them should be done at practices or off the field. It is the coach’s responsibility to ensure that the players understand their own responsibilities as players and teach players how to handle those responsibilities.

GUIDELINES:

• Coaches should introduce themselves to the other coaches prior to a game and discuss concerns. This could potentially include the level of play, the level of intensity (e.g. spiking and rushing the field), and possible modifications to the captain’s clause (e.g. prohibiting zone for new teams or foot-blocking).

• Because the potential for misperception is high, spiking is prohibited at the youth level unless otherwise agreed upon by the coaches or captains. Spiking in a disrespectful manner is never acceptable at any level.

• Coaches will not make calls from the sideline or offer their opinion on a play. Coaches should encourage players to come to a resolution on their own, and if asked during a dispute, coaches may offer rules clarifications. After a dispute a coach may talk to his or her own player about the dispute and offer opinions.

• Youth coaches will make an effort to educate parents about Spirit of the Game and work to create a sideline atmosphere that respects Spirit of the Game.

• Coaches will teach and give players opportunities to practice knowledge of the rules of ultimate.

• Coaches will always exhibit respect for opposing players, other coaches and observers.

• Coaches will model Spirit of the Game at all times.

SUMMARY: The coach’s goal in terms of Spirit of the Game is to create an environment where players are responsible for upholding the rules and ensuring that the outcomes of plays and games are fair.
2014 USA ULTIMATE COACHING CERTIFICATION INFORMATION

During games at USA Ultimate Championship events where field access is restricted, teams with coaching staffs are required to have at least one Level-1 Certified coach or a coach who has attended the USA Ultimate Coaching Ethics Workshop in order for coaching staff to have player-level field access. All coaches must pass an NCSI background check, be current coach-level members of USA Ultimate and must read, sign and agree to abide by the USA Ultimate Coaching Code of Ethics and Spirit of Coaching Statement. All other non-player support staff, with player-level or limited field access, must read, sign and agree to abide by the USA Ultimate Coaching Code of Ethics and Spirit of Coaching Statement. Limits on number of coaches and other non-player support staff will be determined by specific event guidelines.
